STATE OF OREGON,

Plaintiff;

Case No. C131929CR (DA 314112)

vs.

JUDGMENT OF CONVICTION AND SENTENCE

STEVEN DOUGLAS ROCKETT,

Defendant.

This matter came before Judge Andrew R. Erwin on March 17, 2015 for sentencing. The State of Oregon appeared by Dustin Staten and Paul Maloney, Deputy District Attorneys, and the defendant appeared in person, with retained counsel, Richard D. Cohen, Andrew D. Coit, and Chelsea Payment.

It appears to the Court that the defendant has been indicted, arraigned, tried and found guilty by jury verdict of the crimes of Sexual Abuse in the First Degree (Class B Felony, crime seriousness 8, criminal history I) in Count 2; Sexual Abuse in the First Degree (Class B Felony, crime seriousness 8, criminal history D) in Count 3; Using a Child in Display of Sexually Explicit Conduct (Class A Felony, crime seriousness 8, criminal history B) in Count 4; Sexual Abuse in the First Degree (Class B Felony, crime seriousness 8, criminal history A) in Counts 5, 6, 13, and 14; Sodomy in the Second Degree (Class B Felony, crime seriousness 8, criminal history A) in Counts 7 and 8; and Rape in the Second Degree (Class B Felony, crime seriousness 8, criminal history A) in Counts 9 and 10, and Using a Child in Display of Sexually Explicit Conduct (Class A Felony, crime seriousness 8, criminal history A) in Counts 11 and 12. A judgment of acquittal was ordered as to Count 1.

It further appears to the Court that more than 48 hours have passed since said verdict was rendered, and there appears no good cause why sentence should not now be passed.

1 It is therefore CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED by the Court that, pursuant
2 to ORS 137.700 (Ballot Measure 11), defendant be committed to the legal and physical custody of
3 the Corrections Department of the State of Oregon for a period of seventy-five (75) months in each
4 of Counts 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13, and 14; seventy (70) months in Count 4; three hundred (300)
5 months in each of Counts 11 and 12. It is further ORDERED that the sentences imposed in Counts
6 2, 5, 9, 11, and 13 be served consecutively to each other. Defendant shall serve the entire six
7 hundred (600) months imposed by the Court. Defendant is not eligible for release on post-prison
8 supervision, early release, or any form of leave or temporary leave from custody. Defendant is not
9 eligible for any reduction of this sentence for any reason whatsoever under ORS 421.120, ORS
10 421.121, or any other statute.

11 It is further ORDERED that the term of post-prison supervision shall be for a period of ten
12 (10) years minus time served in Counts 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13, and 14; and three (3) years in 13 Counts 4, 11, and 12. Violation of post-prison supervision shall subject defendant to sanctions or 14 additional imprisonment.

15 Further, the Court recommends the following conditions be made a part of defendant's post-
16 prison supervision:

- 17 1. The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact with the victims, Nicole Schneider, 18 [REDACTED], N [REDACTED] S [REDACTED]; nor shall the defendant enter onto the premises, or within 19 100 yards, of where the victims reside, work or attend school without the prior written
20 permission of the supervising officer.
- 21 2. The defendant shall not have any contact whatsoever with any minors without the prior written 22 permission of the supervising officer.
- 23 3. The defendant shall not be at any residence where minor children are residing without the prior written permission of the supervising officer.
4. The defendant shall not be at any place where persons under 18 years of age regularly congregate without the prior written permission of the supervising officer.

- 1 5. The defendant shall undergo a complete sex offender evaluation at the direction of the supervising 2 officer.
- 3 6. The defendant shall enter and successfully complete a sex offender treatment program approved
4 by the defendant's supervising officer. The program may include polygraph and 5 plethysmograph testing. The defendant is responsible for paying for the treatment program.
- 6 7. The defendant unless otherwise required under the sex offender treatment program condition,
7 shall not view, listen to, own or possess any sexually stimulating visual or auditory materials
8 that are relevant to the defendant's deviant behavior. Defendant shall consent to search of 9 defendant's computer or other electronic equipment by the supervising officer, or their
10 representative, if the supervising officer has reasonable grounds to believe that evidence of a 11 violation will be found.
- 12 8. The defendant shall waive all client/psychotherapist privilege.
- 13 9. The defendant shall bear financial responsibility, as directed by the supervising officer, for any 14 counseling, therapy, treatment and medical costs incurred by the victim as a result of this offense.

15 Further, it shall be the sentence of the Court that the defendant submit a blood or buccal sample
16 at defendant's own expense, unless defendant lacks the ability to pay, to the Oregon State Police for 17 the purposes of establishing a DNA profile.

18 It is further ORDERED that the defendant shall register as a sex offender with the proper 19 authorities for the rest of defendant's life and that the defendant be required to update the 20 registration as required by law.

21 At the time of sentencing, the ruling on payment of fines and fees was deferred until June 5,
22 2015. However, by ruling of the Court on June 19, 2015, fines and court appointed attorney fees
23 are waived, restitution and compensatory fines were determined as set forth in the Money Award section of this order.

It is further ORDERED that the security deposit posted and forfeited, be reinstated, and minus the statutory fee, be applied to court ordered financial obligations in this matter.

MONEY AWARD

The State of Oregon is the creditor and the defendant, Steven Douglas Rockett, is the debtor.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

As to Counts 1, 2, and 4 through 9, and upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of Life.

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter.

☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties section of this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with the Standard Conditions of Supervised Release that have been adopted by this court as set forth in this judgment. The defendant shall also comply with the Special Conditions of Supervision as set forth below and any additional conditions attached to this judgment.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer, if required by law.
2. The defendant shall pay full restitution to the victim identified in the presentence report in an amount to be determined in 90 days. If there is any unpaid balance at the time of the defendant's release from custody, it shall be paid at the maximum installment possible and not less than $100 per month.
3. To the extent there is any unpaid restitution, the defendant is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.
4. To the extent there is any unpaid restitution, the defendant shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the probation officer. Defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the probation officer.
5. To the extent there is any unpaid restitution, the defendant shall authorize release to the U.S. Probation Officer any and all financial information by execution of a release of financial information form, or by any other appropriate means, as directed by the probation officer.
6. The defendant shall participate in a sex offender assessment and treatment program, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules and requirements of such program. This assessment and treatment program may include the use of the polygraph to assist in case planning and case monitoring.
7. The defendant shall not view, purchase, or possess (1) any materials including visual depictions of minors under the age of 18 engaged in sexually explicit conduct, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2); or (2) any materials depicting sexually explicit conduct involving adults.
8. The defendant is prohibited from being present within 100 feet of places where minor children under the age of 18 congregate, such as playgrounds and schools, unless approved by the probation officer.

DEFENDANT: STEVEN DOUGLAS ROCKETT
CASE NUMBER: 3:13-CR-00557-SI-1

Judgment-Page 4 of 7

9. The defendant is prohibited from residing within 100 yards of schools and playgrounds and other places where minor children congregate, unless approved by the probation officer.
10. The defendant shall register, if required by law, with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student and shall provide written notification of compliance with this condition as directed by the probation officer.
11. The defendant shall reside at a residence approved by the probation officer, and shall notify the probation officer at least 30 days prior to any change in residence.
12. The defendant shall have no contact with minors (in person, by telephone, through correspondence, or a third party) unless approved by the probation officer and the Court.
13. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Officer with truthful and complete information regarding all computer hardware, software, electronic services, and data storage media to which the defendant has access.
14. The defendant is prohibited from using or possessing any computer(s) (including any handheld computing device, any electronic device capable of connecting to any on-line service, or any data storage media) without the prior written approval of the U.S. Probation Officer. This includes, but is not limited to, computers at public libraries, Internet cafes, or the defendant's place of employment or education.
15. The defendant shall submit to a search of his/her computer (including any handheld computing device, any electronic device capable of connecting to any on-line service, or any data storage media) conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn all individuals that have access to defendant's computer that it is subject to search and/or seizure.
16. The defendant shall participate in the U.S. Probation Office's Computer Monitoring Program. Participation in the Program may include installation of software or hardware on the defendant's computer that allows random or regular monitoring of the defendant's computer use; periodic inspection of defendant's computer (including retrieval, copying, and review of its electronic contents) to determine defendant's compliance with the Program; and restriction of the defendant's computer use to those computers, software programs, and electronic services approved by the U.S. Probation Officer.
17. The defendant shall have no contact with the victims in this case including MG, HJ, DS, BS, and NS, in person, by telephone, through correspondence or a third party unless approved in advance by the probation officer.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

The Judges of the District of Oregon adopt the following standard conditions of probation and supervised release to apply in every case in which probation and/or supervised release is imposed upon a defendant. The individual judge may impose other conditions deemed advisable in individual cases of probation or supervised release supervision, as consistent with existing or future law.

1. The defendant shall report in person to the probation office for the district to which he or she is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of probation or supervised release is mandatory for illegal possession of a controlled substance.
3. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive, or dangerous device.
4. If the defendant illegally uses drugs or abuses alcohol, has a history of drug or alcohol abuse, or drug use or possession is determined to be an element of the defendant's criminal history or instant offense, the defendant shall participate in a substance abuse treatment program as directed by the probation officer which may include urinalysis testing to determine if the defendant has used drugs or alcohol. In addition to urinalysis testing that may be part of a formal drug treatment program, the defendant shall submit up to eight (8) urinalysis tests per month.
5. The defendant shall submit to a search of his/her person, residence, office or vehicle, when conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
6. The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer.
7. The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
8. The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer. The defendant may decline to answer inquiries if a truthful response would tend to incriminate him/her. Such a refusal to answer may constitute grounds for revocation.
9. The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities to the best of his or her financial ability.
10. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
11. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of any change in residence or employment.
12. The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician. If, at any time, the probation officer has reasonable cause to believe the defendant is using illegal drugs or is abusing alcohol, the defendant shall submit to urinalysis testing, breathalyzer testing, or reasonable examination of the arms, neck, face, and lower legs.
13. The defendant shall not knowingly frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.
14. The defendant shall not knowingly associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not knowingly associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
15. The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any reasonable time at home or elsewhere, and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
16. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
17. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informant or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.
18. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by his or her criminal record or personal history and characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such a notification requirement. This requirement will be exercised only when the probation officer believes a reasonably foreseeable risk exists or a law mandates such notice. Unless the probation officer believes the defendant presents an immediate threat to the safety of an identifiable individual, notice shall be delayed so the probation officer can arrange for a court hearing and the defendant can obtain legal counsel.
